

Come Meet Your Meat!

At Tifereth Israel

Focus (& Feast) on the Fowl Fest

- * Learn about the US commercial meat industry (both general and kosher) and the practices of shechitah (kosher slaughter)
- * Taste a Shabbat dinner of local, free-range, natural meat

Rabbi Shalom Kantor is the only Conservative shochet in the world. He became a shochet to work with small communities on both education about shechitah and procuring kosher-ethically raised meat.

October 25: Rabbi Kantor shechts poultry at Good Fortune Farm (TI's supplier of organic veggies and eggs). Interested participants welcome.

October 26: Tifereth Israel congregants and guests are invited to a dinner of natural, kosher, local poultry and organic veggies from Good Fortune Farm. Rabbi Kantor speaks.

October 27: Rabbi Kantor gives the divar torah at Tifereth Israel.

October 28: Rabbi Kantor leads trip to Good Fortune Farm to teach and demonstrate.

Call Tifereth Israel to RSVP for the above events. (202) 882-1606 or tiadmin@tifereth-israel.org.
7701 16th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20012

Events are made possible through a grant from Hazon
Jewish Environmental Organization.

